The proposer and seconders must all be entitled under Article 2(1) of the Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002 to vote for the candidate they nominate in any poll held for the election.

GENERAL INFORMATION for candidates, proposers and seconders of candidates

1. The Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002 regulates the election to the office of Procureur du Bien Public. The electoral district is the Parish for the office of Procureur du Bien Public. A person standing for election must be resident in the Parish in which they are a candidate; however the Parish of St. Helier (Qualifications for Office) (Jersey) Law 1976 permits persons who are ratepayers of the Parish to be eligible even if they do not live in the Parish of St Helier.
2. A nomination form for each candidate for election must be produced to the meeting and must be completed by a proposer and 9 seconders who are electors in the parish. The proposer and seconders must all be entitled under Article 2(1) of the Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002 to vote for the candidate they nominate in any poll held for the election.

ELECTION MATERIALS – please ensure you follow the Department for Infrastructure (Tel: 445509) requirements and guidelines when placing election materials on the highway and on road signs.

The Parish is a 'controller' under the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 and we process and hold your information in order to administer public elections in accordance with our statutory obligations. Below, we explain what we collect; how we will use your information; and what your rights are.
We have collected your personal details (name; address; elector number) in order to administer public elections in accordance with the Public Elections (Jersey) Law 2002.	We will retain your data in perpetuity to maintain a historic record (and pass it to the Jersey Archive for this purpose) in the minutes of the Electoral Assembly.
